CIVIC PRIDE

www.memphisinmay.org
This year, Memphis in May will use its platform to focus the world’s attention on the captivating sights, compelling stories, and cutting-edge innovations happening in Memphis right now and carrying us into the next century. Your favorite events of Memphis in May will of course return to Tom Lee Park: the sounds of Beale Street Music Festival and the aromatic haze of the World Championship Barbecue Cooking Contest. But to embrace our Bicentennial Celebration this year, we’re adding a new event to the 2019 lineup, Celebrate Memphis; the chance to bask in the people, communities, and culture that make Memphis great—all gathered at our beautiful riverfront.

Your pride in this city makes Memphis a better place to live. As growth, renewal, and progress are happening across our city every day, we encourage you to join us now in celebrating all that Memphis has accomplished in 200 years, while building on the excitement and anticipation of our next century.

For more than forty years, Memphis in May International Festival has presented the culture of a different member of the world community to our local community as part of our month-long celebration.

But with the unique civic opportunity to celebrate Memphis’ Bicentennial in 2019, we will break from tradition and salute the storied history and rich culture of our own hometown! As a proud Memphian, we hope that you can help us continue to share Memphis with the world, especially on this once-in-a-lifetime occasion.

SHOW YOUR CIVIC PRIDE
and help us share our culture with the world.

We are proud of what Memphis becomes in May, and with your support and the help of our hundreds of volunteers, we will invite the world to Celebrate Memphis as only we can, in one big, wonderful, festival that takes the whole month of May to do it right!
